RIGHT TO INFORMATION CONDITIONS

ORDINARY GENERAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS OF AENA, S.A. 28 June 2016

CONDITIONS OF THE RIGHT TO INFORMATION PRIOR TO THE HOLDING OF THE MEETING

Shareholders may ask the directors of AENA, S.A. (AENA) in writing until the fifth day before the date scheduled for holding the General Meeting convened for 28 June 2016 on first call and for 29 June 2016 on second call, and which is expected to be held on first call, for the information or clarifications they deem necessary about the items on the agenda, or submit in writing the questions they believe relevant. Furthermore, shareholders may ask the directors in writing with the same deadline or verbally during the holding of the Meeting for the clarifications they deem necessary about the information accessible to the public which has been provided by the Company to the National Securities Market Commission (CNMV – Comisión Nacional del Mercado de Valores) since the holding of the last General Meeting and about the auditor's report.

The information requested under the provisions of the preceding paragraph shall be provided to the applicant by the Board of Directors or by delegation by any of its members authorised for this purpose or by its Secretary. The information shall be provided in writing within the period from when the request is made up to the day of the General Meeting.

However, requests for information may be rejected in the cases covered by the Law and Article 13 of the Regulation of the General Meeting of Shareholders of AENA.

You can deliver the form you use to ask for information by hand or send it by post to the Company marked for the attention of the Secretary's Office of the Board/Legal Advice and Asset Management Department of AENA, S.A. at the Company's registered office at Arturo Soria, 109, 28043 Madrid. In this case the form must be signed with the handwritten signature of the shareholder who must prove their identity with a photocopy of their National Identity Card or Passport, and legal entities must attach a document attesting to the proxy powers of the person concerned. In addition, the applicant shall demonstrate their status as a shareholder or provide sufficient information (number of shares, custodian, etc.) so that they can be verified by the Company.

The foregoing shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Company Bylaws and the Regulation of the General Meeting of AENA, S.A.. Likewise, the rules included in the notice of the General Meeting and on the Company's website (<http://www.aena.es>) must be complied with.

Valid requests for information or clarification and questions submitted in writing by shareholders and the answers provided in writing by the directors shall be posted on the Company's website provided that the shareholders have submitted such requests in accordance with the formal procedures set out for exercising the right to information.
