Dear Mr. [REDACTED],

Regarding your requests for public information dated 24th October 2025 and 18th November 2025, received by Aena S.M.E., S.A. and in compliance with the provisions of the Law 19/2013 on Transparency, Access to Public Information and Good Governance, please find attached a Excel file containing arriving flights in Josep Tarradellas Barcelona-El Prat Airport on 10th October 2025, in the timeframe between 00:30 and 02:30 local time.

However, I inform you that access to information on delayed and canceled flights is denied, in accordance with Article 14.1.h) of the aforementioned Law, which states that the right of access may be limited when accessing the information would harm economic and commercial interests.

Providing data on delayed and canceled flights would reveal information about the airlines, which are private companies operating under a regime of free competition, without exceptions. If delays or cancellations are identified, it could cause reasonable and not merely hypothetical harm to their commercial and economic interests. Access to the requested information does not constitute a higher public interest, as these companies operate under a regime of free competition governed by the passengers' freedom of choice. These arguments presented by Aena are supported by the Council for Transparency and Good Governance in its resolutions R/0711/2019 and R/0929/2021, which dismissed claims seeking information with identical characteristics.

In case of disagreement with the terms included in this communication, a claim may be presented to the Consejo de Transparencia y Buen Gobierno, with optional character and before its challenging by the administrative litigation procedure, within the term of one month starting the following day of the notification date of the above mentioned communication, in accordance with Article 24 of the Law 19/2013, on transparency, access to public information and good governance, dated 9th December 2013.

Kind regards,
